GERMAN ODD FELLOWS IN ELABORATE BANQUET

Carl Schurz Encampment No. 362 I. O. O. F., gave a most enjoyable banquet at the hall of the German Odd Fellows Saturday night. There was in attendance a company of men and women that tested the capacity of the hall. The event was in honor of the splendid growth of the encampment during its existence of a little more than three years. The camp was organized with a membership of seven; it now numbers eighty-three members.

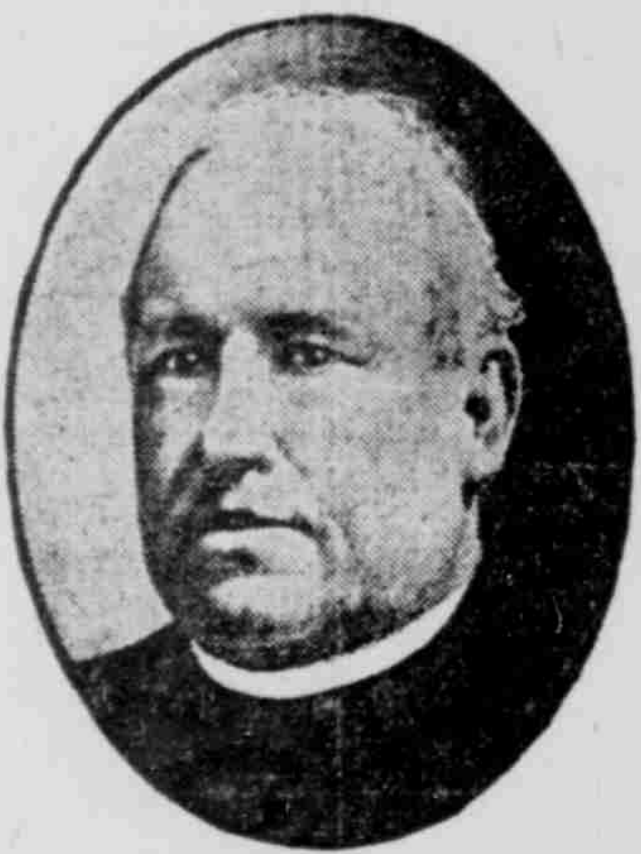

Max Schlegel officiated as toastmaster at the banquet. Zither duets were rendered by Miss Jenny Kuespert and Mrs. E. E. Miles. The singing section of the South Bend Turnverein gave three renditions of favorite German songs.

Speeches suitable to the occasion were delivered by Ernst Schlegel, Francis E. Lambert, John E. Stoll and Ryell T. Miller.

The affair was managed by a committee of arrangements consisting of W. Sommerer, H. Brinkman, Max Schlegel, Charles Lang and Ernst Schlegel. The reception committee consisted of G. Krauser and L. Mayer.

Mrs. Dieulafoy, explorer and traveler, is the only woman in France who is permitted to wear male attire, a law having been passed especially for her benefit.

TO THE PUBLIC

We are about to publish in this paper a series of articles introducing Father John's Medicine to this city.

We shall tell you its interesting history, how it was prescribed for the Rev. Father John O'Brien of Lowell, Mass., from whom it got its name, 50 years ago.

You will understand why it is the leading preparation wherever it is advertised, because of its merit, as proven by a great number of impressive endorsements by clergymen, doctors, hospitals and institutions all over the country.

Father John's Medicine has had fifty years' success as a body builder, for colds, throat and lung troubles, asthma, bronchitis, and consumption. It does not contain alcohol nor dangerous drugs in any form.

The history of Father John's Medicine is guaranteed to be true. We offer to give $25,000 if any charity if it can be shown otherwise.

ROW AT "RITUAL MURDER" TRIAL

Janitor's Damaging Testimony Against Mysterious Woman Causes Her to Fly in Rage and Jump From Seat.

KIEFF, Russia, Oct. 21.—A dramatic incident Monday in the "ritual murder" trial of Mendel Beilis caused a scene of confusion in the court room. Janitor Gaevsky, formerly employed in the house in which the Techeberiak family lived, was on the stand and swore that he once overheard Vera Techeberiak, the mysterious woman, say: "I must finish with Andrew Yushinsky, as boys are a hindrance."

Vera, her face convulsed with rage, jumped from her seat among the government's witnesses and rushed toward the witness box, screaming: "You lie, and you know it, you spy."

A guard seized the woman and the two struggled before the witness box amidst a scene of uproar and confusion until other attendants rushed up and overpowered the woman.

Andrew Yushinsky was the 13-year-old victim of the murder and was a playfellow of Vera's two children. Shortly after Andrew's body, pierced with 42 stab wounds had been found in a cave, Vera's children were mysteriously poisoned to death.

The inference drawn by many was that the woman feared that the children must have overheard the conversation between her and some of her mysterious callers. The defense charges that Vera is a secretly paid agent of the Russian government to help carry out plans to harass the Jews at Kieff.

Unless the trial is suspended by the ministry of justice, it probably will be a fortnight before a verdict is returned.

JEWISH QUARTER ATTACKED.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, Oct. 21.—A mob attacked the Jewish quarter of the village of Sasnowitch Monday, charging that a girl had been slain for "ritual purposes."

The rioters were driven off and it was later ascertained that the girl's injuries were self-inflicted. Crying for the blood of the Ghetto resident, the mob made a murderous attack and a number of persons were injured. Houses were stoned and pedestrians in the streets clubbed.

This was the first outbreak of anti-semitic violence resulting from the Kieff trial.
